

British Wheel of Yoga (BWY)

Foundation Course One

starts April 2019

with Jacqui Jones

If you want to gain a greater understanding of Yoga and deepen your practice, then this highly regarded 60-hour, exciting course is perfect for you. Over a 12-month period you will expand your knowledge and experience by immersing yourself in the incredible practice of Yoga. Keeping a personal Yoga Journal, you will chart the journey of your own practice over the year, as an important aspect of the course is encouraging self-reflection. The course provides a comprehensive grounding not just in Asana and Pranayama, but also an understanding of Yoga philosophy and theory. It is also excellent preparation for anyone who might want to train to teach yoga in the future (it is advantageous when applying for BWY Diploma Courses and is highly recommended), but it is also suitable for students who don't want to teach. See the attached course syllabus for details of this practical personal development course which has no submitted written work, is not formally assessed and has a maximum of 16 students per course.

Foundation Course Student Requirements:

1. There will be a short interview for each candidate in order to provide the opportunity to find out their suitability for the course. Please bear in mind, that this course is an investment into your development and requires commitment for its duration.
 2. To receive the BWY Foundation Course certificate students must attend a minimum of 80% of the course.
 3. Be a member or join BWY before commencement of the course.
 4. During the course have a regular practice and keep a Personal Yoga Journal.

About Jacqui – read more here and here

I teach Yoga because I love it so much and want to pass on its benefits, both physical and mental, which have been essential to me for a healthy life. I believe that in our fast-paced modern environment Yoga gives us a way to keep our equilibrium. In my 16 years of teaching I have had more than a dozen students go on to train to teach. Initially I lived in an area where finding a class was difficult, now I am surrounded by a community of teachers many of whom I have contributed to their personal journey to teaching. I find this very fulfilling and inspiring and have continued this journey to teaching Foundation Courses myself.

'Jacqui doesn't teach just yoga postures, her teachings are meaningful and heart-warming, yoga is about union and creating a path for self-discovery. Jacqui was that teacher who helped me to deepen my knowledge and practice. I would highly encourage anyone considering attending classes with Jacqui. Great teachings from a forever student.' Emma Thomas – Yoga Teacher & founder Santosha Yoga Studio	'Having previously practiced yoga for many years I started to attend Jacqui's classes after a short break in my yoga journey. Jacqui's style of teaching really reminded me of why I first came to yoga and why I loved it so much. Jacqui teaches with so much knowledge and compassion and is a natural teacher. Her teachings and classes inspired me to deepen my knowledge of yoga which led me to the BWY Foundation Course and then onto the Teaching Certificate. I can't thank Jacqui enough for reminding me why I need yoga in my life and for inspiring me to find my new career.' Clare Holmes- Yoga Teacher
'Attending Jacqui's classes and speaking to her, as she does walk her talk, really inspired me to find out more about Yoga and to deepen my knowledge about the other aspects of it too. The mind and spiritual side. The more you learn the more there is to learn which then thanks to Jacqui lead me on to wanting to teach.' Natalie Young – Yoga Teacher	"I started to take Jacqui's classes because of a neck problem but I soon became hooked. Jacqui not only explains and teaches each asana clearly but incorporates interesting quotes according to the theme. They could be on current topics or Yoga philosophy, but they sparked an interest in me to go further into Yoga as a complete, rather than a purely physical, practice and I've never regretted it!" Julie Belford – Yoga Teacher
'Jacqui teaches her classes with great sensitivity and effectiveness. Her classes are always interesting as asana and pranayama practices are combined with yogic philosophy (both ancient and modern). I leave class feeling I can practice yoga with confidence and also feeling much more in touch with myself.' Alison Leach – Yoga Teacher
